Serving Shoulder To Shoulder

Rev David Cher, Lord's Day, 26 Jan 2025

Beloved Brethren,
Greetings in the Precious Name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. This morning is Dedication Sunday for which we rededicate, renew, and refocus our passion, energy, gifts, and talents toward God and His Kingdom Work. We, as a Body of Christ, cannot and should not pass by any opportunity given to us to serve the LORD and one another (John 9:4 "I must work the works of Him that sent Me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work"). 'The night' which is referred to in the above verse can refer and extend to numerous things that can limit and affect our serving of God. These things can include physical death, the effects of physical ageing, health issues and adversities, and trying circumstances and hardships that come into our lives.

Even though the concept of working is mentioned in John 9:4, we must always be conscious that our serving should not become mere busyness. When this happens, we become too focused and distracted by the mere tiny details in our ministries' roles, duties, and responsibilities, and forget the bigger picture of going about the Lord's business and our contribution to it. It truly is the Lord's business and not just ours, and we need to depend on Him and His leading. We are given the 2 contrasting examples of Mary and Martha in Luke 10:38-42. May we be like Mary who sat at the feet of Jesus and had her heart and eyes open to His voice, and not be like Martha who became too engrossed with her busying of many things.

Oftentimes, we too would tend to view serving in an individual sense. May I put forth for all of us to view serving as also one way to build upon and develop the friendships that we have with one another. Such building can happen within the same ministry or across the different ministries and generation levels. As we serve, may we have mutual love, understanding, and sensitivity toward one another. In such a gracious and accepting serving environment, it would then be possible to connect and help one another to grow at a deeper level (Prov. 27:17 "Iron sharpeneth iron; so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend"). This is also needful as our serving does not happen in a vacuum, but within the different contexts of the lives of individuals and their families, and the differing challenges and difficulties that can arise.

When we serve together, just as Jonathan did for his beloved friend David, we can lift one another's spirit and attitude to life when we share our life circumstances and burdens with one another. Also, we can be an inspiration when we see one another living out our faith and passion for God. In addition, we can encourage and strengthen one another's spiritual convictions and keep one another accountable regarding our walk with God. These can all prevent us from falling prey to areas and times of weakness, shallowness, and lack of discipline.

Throughout this exciting journey of serving God and His Kingdom Work for this year of 2025, let us not forget God and His faithfulness especially when we are tempted to be overwhelmed by the circumstances that come upon us. In such times, we can be tempted to grumble and complain against our Almighty God and Heavenly Father. Instead, let us not overlook but be reminded of God's goodness and blessings to us even in the everyday mundane aspects and happenings of our daily lives.

1 Cor. 15:58 "Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord." God Bless!
